

Individual Reflective Journal Assignment

Instructions

As part of your assessment for the course, you are required to submit one individual reflective journal that captures your personal learning experience throughout the 14-week course.

This reflective journal is an opportunity to: Consolidate your understanding of detergent science and business concepts. Reflect on how your thinking, skills, and mindset have evolved. Identify key insights, challenges, and turning points in your learning journey. Connect theoretical knowledge and lab experiences to real-world applications.

Submission Requirements

Format: Typed, 12-pt font, 1.5 spacing, submitted in Word or PDF

Length: 1000–1500 words (approximately 3–5 pages)

Journal Structure

1. Introduction (Approx. 150–200 words)

What were your initial expectations or assumptions about this course?

Why did you choose to take this course, and what were your goals?

2. Reflection on Key Learnings (Approx. 400–500 words)

What were the most important concepts or skills you learned?

How did lectures, labs, and group projects contribute to your understanding?

Highlight any key insights or “aha” moments.

3. Application and Real-World Relevance (Approx. 300–400 words)

How do you see yourself applying this knowledge in a real-world context?

Describe any connections you made between course content and industry practices.

4. Challenges and Growth (Approx. 200–300 words)

What challenges did you face in this course?

How did you address them, and what did you learn from the experience?

5. Personal and Professional Development (Approx. 150–200 words)

How has this course influenced your career interests, mindset, or skillset?

What would you like to explore further as a result of this course?

Reflective Journal Rubric

Each criterion is rated on a 1 to 4 scale:

4 = Excellent (Exceeds expectations)

3 = Good (Meets expectations)

2 = Satisfactory (Partially meets expectations)

1 = Needs Improvement (Below expectations)

Criteria	4 – Excellent	3 – Good	2 – Satisfactory	1 – Needs Improvement
Depth of Reflection	Thoughtful, critical, and deeply personal insights; demonstrates learning growth.	Reflective with some insight; connects personal experience to learning.	Basic reflection with limited insight; more descriptive than analytical.	Superficial or vague; lacks meaningful reflection.
Coverage of Course Experience	Integrates all key aspects of the course (theory, lab, project, business).	Covers most key components of the course.	Addresses a few components but misses major experiences.	Very limited or unfocused coverage of course experience.
Real-World Application	Clearly relates learning to real-world or professional contexts with specific examples.	Makes general connections to real-world relevance.	Limited or abstract connections to practice.	No practical connection or unclear application.
Structure and Clarity	Well-organized, coherent, and easy to follow; clear writing throughout.	Mostly clear with some lapses in structure or flow.	Some disorganization or unclear sections.	Difficult to read or poorly structured.
Presentation and Language	Free of spelling or grammar errors; professionally formatted.	Minor errors that do not interfere with readability.	Several language issues that affect readability.	Frequent errors; lacks professionalism.